

	Thursday: Managing conflicts between Private Sector & Environmental Groups
8.45 am	Meeting at FHD: Recap
9.00 – 10.00 am	Experiences with Conflicts between Private Sector and other (Citizens') Interests in Sub-Saharan Africa , Dr. Michael Brüntrup, German Development Institute (30' Keynote speech, 30' plenary debate)
10.00 am	Coffee/ Tea break
10.30– 11.30 am	Opportunities and Challenges of Citizens Participating in Public Private Sector Planning Processes , Dr. Ulrike Nienhaus, District Council of Duesseldorf (30' Keynote speech, 30' Plenary debate)
Noon	Bus to Monheim (with lunch)
01.00 – 03.30	Working on Conflicts between Civil Society and Private Sector , Daniel Zimmermann, Mayor of Monheim
	Current Conflicts between Private Sector and other (Citizens') Interests in Germany: Introduction of the Case of the CO-Pipeline in Rhineland , Karsten Sander, Wirtschaftsblatt (15' Keynote speech, 5' Questions and Answers)
	Facilitating conflicts between citizens and private sector enterprises N.N., Genehmigungsbehörde District Council of Duesseldorf Political Campaigning as a Means of Citizens' Engagement , Dieter Donner and Erwin Schumacher, Movement against the CO-Pipeline
	Plenary Discussion with Karsten Sander, Dieter Donner and N.N.
03.30 – 04.00	Coffee/ Tea Break
4.00 – 05.00	Reflection Groups: Lessons & Open Questions
05.00 – 5.45	Bus to Cologne
06.00	Cultural Programme in Cologne and visiting the Cathedral
07.30	Dinner in a typical Brauhaus next to the Cathedral